

Green hydrogen corridor between the North and South of Europe

Cepsa will supply green ammonia produced in its Energy Parks in Andalusia to the planned import terminal of ACE in the port of Rotterdam, for end use applications in the industry after conversion of the ammonia back into hydrogen, or for direct end use in the shipping and other industries in Northwest Europe.

